A TRIBUTE TO . . .

Carolyn Glasson

Dolores Kratz

Dolores Kratz, who is looking forward to hours of relaxation on the golf course, retired after 37 years of teaching, 31 of those in the Clinton School District. Kratz or Kratzie, as she is affectionately called, has helped thousands of young people to become physically fit throughout her years of teaching physical education and health.

Mrs. Kratz received her B.S. in Education from Southern Illinois University and did graduate work at the University of Illinois. In addition to teaching physical education and health, she also sponsored Girls' Athletic Association and cheerleading for many years. Mrs. Kratz has seen vast improvement in the educational facilities since she first came to CCHS 30 years ago.

A member of the United Methodist Church, Mrs. Kratz enjoys golf and traveling. She plans to do plenty of cheering for her favorite teams, the Maroons, the Cubs, and the Bears. Her three children, Barb, Sue, and Jan, also look forward to having their mom free to visit more often. Congratulations go out to Mrs. Kratz from the students, faculty, and staff. We all hope she has a relaxing and fun-filled retirement.

Carolyn Glasson has so enjoyed her association with the young people she counsels that she was really reluctant to retire this year. After a brief Easter vacation, sun-filled days of reading, walking, and enjoying a few hours of unspoken-for time, she realized she could retire and still enjoy her association with others who need her help. Her goals included contract counseling, writing, reading, swimming, walking, enjoying her family and friends, and wiggling her toes in the wet ocean sand and eating fresh fish and luscious ripe fruits.

Since she earned her B.S. in Education from EIU in 1949, Mrs. Glasson has been devoted to education. She received her M.A. from the University of Michigan in 1952. Typical of most teachers, she pursued additional classes at Sangamon State, Millikin, ISU, U of I, and EIU.

Mrs. Glasson is involved in both academic and community activities; of specific note are the United Methodist Church, YMCA, BPW, CEA, IEA, and NEA.

Members of the faculty and staff and students and their parents have shared in Mrs. Glasson's vast knowledge and gained strength from her words of wisdom. Their good wishes go with her as she embarks on her "new" career. Richard, Carolyn's husband of nearly 40 years, and their children and their families look forward to having some "quality time" with this new retiree.

Pete Followell is the only one in the group who is not camera shy.

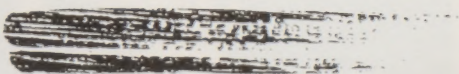

Rick McGhee chats with friends before class.

Josh Morrow and Melissa Harvey dance the night away.

SELECTING A THEME

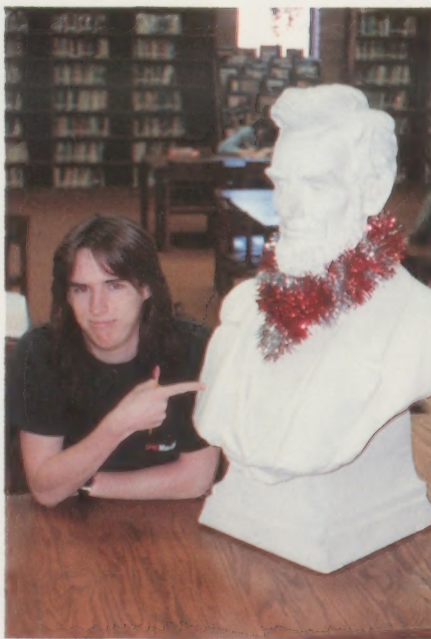

Selecting a theme for the yearbook turned out to be a five-week "adventure." We went from a patriotic cover, with the flag as the background, to a book entitled "Eternal Ties," with a focus on shoe laces, ties, ropes, etc. Another theme was "Till Death Do Us Part." It died before we even got to the division pages. Several members wanted "A Tribute To," and as many others wanted a patriotic cover. When the yelling stopped and the dust died down, we had a patriotic cover with a theme of tribute. Not bad for five weeks of numerous heated "discussions" and a few pouty faces. So, this 1991 CLINTONIA is a tribute to those graduating seniors and faculty and staff of Clinton Community High School.

FRIENDS BRIGHT AND TRUE

A tribute . . . Friends pictured on these two pages either had outstanding friendships with those they are pictured with or were considered to be a friend to many throughout the school. Friendships were strong this year. Here's a special tribute to them!

Friendly Faces

"Hi Jason!" says Denise Korneman.

"Hi Denise!" replies Jason Drake.

Brett Carter and Joe Dougherty spend an eventful day in restricted area.

As the yearbook staff wanders calmly down the hallways, students are happy to oblige with having their pictures taken.

Whether in the hallways, in the classrooms, or in the restricted area, friendly faces are found all over CHS.

These are the faces of friends and the bonds of friendship that will last a lifetime.

Embarrassed Tonya?

Top: Junior girls get into the Christmas spirit. Bottom: Lisa Goodwin and Candace Blessing pose for the yearbook staff.

FRIENDS ALWAYS

Clockwise from below: The three musketeers-Stephanie Beadles, Denise Korneman, and Kristi Helton. Surprise! Angela Webber and Emmabelle Kleiss. Gee, guys, don't get too excited. Ah! Isn't that sweet?

While many people were busy after school, some people made friends and enjoyed the company of old friends while at school. For the seniors, it was the last year to be with friends; and for others, they had plenty of time left to enjoy their other classmates. When you look down the senior hall, you expect to see... Josh Turney, Eric Thayer, and Joe Dougherty together, just like in Sunday School Nursery; Michelle Wheeler and Tara Wright sitting down by their lockers waiting for the bell to ring; Ross Glenn, Kyle Nixon, Brian Reeser, Russell Crutcher, and Darrin Cooper hanging out together; Brian Greenslate, Mark Mathias, and Rick McGhee Cruizin' around the square together; and Stacie Hoke, Shelby Graber, Jennifer Holmes, and Denise Hoff walking through the halls together. No matter how much time students spend with each other, their friendships only grow stronger and stronger.

CONSTRUCTION

While many of our friends were working outside the United States, our own little construction project was going on here at CCHS. The new heating and cooling system in the high school turned into a great adventure. It lasted throughout most of the summer and nearly the entire school year. It interrupted many classes, causing students and teachers to have to move into other rooms in order to work. Even though there were numerous disruptions and some "very" cold days inside, the new system should help us to be more comfortable and prevent our losing school days to excessive heat.

You're supposed to be working on the construction, not on your shoe.

Working hard or hardly working?

The new heating and cooling system.

Do you think anyone will find this up there?

Saddam Hussein makes one of his many speeches about the U.S. involvement in the war in the Gulf.

THE SOLDIERS

While we were at school having the best times of our lives, there were several thousand men and women over in the Persian Gulf risking their lives for freedom. Many of those people have been over there since August of 1990, just before we started the school year. Seven months later, they were sending the troops home. Even in Clinton, we had many friends we know and love sent over there. These are the names of a few soldiers who graduated from CCHS in the past five years: James Brady, 1988 graduate, son of Virgil and Janet Brady; Stanley E. Elsasser Jr., 1987 graduate, son of Janice Wagner and Stanley Elsasser; Jeremy Eveland, 1987 graduate, son of Judith Eveland and Terry L. Eveland; Jeff Hickerson, 1989 graduate, son of Merla and Rev. J. Kent Hickerson; Michael Koeberlein, 1987 graduate, son of Philip and Linda Koeberlein; Steven M. Lappin, 1989 graduate, son of Gerald and Linda Lappin; James R. Nichols, 1988 graduate, son of Cletus and Louise Nichols; James T. Ray II, 1986 graduate, son of Judy and Rev. Tracy Ray; and Keith A. Spilman, 1986 graduate, son of Elmer and Maxine Spilman. We salute you in your efforts.

Clockwise from right: Mr. Byrd, Mr. Bauersachs, Mrs. Glasson, and Mr. Coon wearing pretty flowers on Bosses' Day; Mrs. Roesch busy doing attendance on a regular day; Mr. Raleigh, a student teacher this year, discussing grades with his pupils; Mrs. Werts, before class begins; Mrs. Hogan fixing a meal in the Home Ec. room.

TEACHERS HAVING FUN

Clockwise from lower right: Mr. Bergles racing one of his students to class, Mr. Lehman after school is over. What are you up to Miss Rhodes? Busy day Mrs. Hoffman?

The United States reacted immediately to the invasion, building up a U. S. force of well over 100,000 troops.

2-Live Crew is a group that made hit songs and big headlines this year with their album "As Nasty As You Wanna Be."

Demonstrators demanding an end to Communist Party domination lit candles and placed flowers on bloodstained sidewalks.

Nelson Mandela was released from prison in February 1990, at the age of 71. He spent 48 years in a South African prison.

Jim Henson was a puppeteer with an enormous following. On May 16, 1990, at the age of 53, he died from a severe case of pneumonia. During his career, he created an endearing menagerie of creatures, characters of timeless appeal.

Aerosmith has been around for a long time, and they have a history of good times and bad times; but 1990 may have been their best yet. Their latest album, "Pump" has been on the charts for all of 1990.

President George Bush and President Mikhail Gorbachev of the Soviet Union met several times during 1990.

Nolan Ryan, at the age of 43, holds more than 40 major league records, including most no hitters, most one-hitters and most strikeouts.

A "PEACE" OF HISTORY

Another historical event happening this year includes the unification of East and West Germany into the Federal Republic of Germany. Not far away the ruler of Iraq, Saddam Hussein, invaded the tiny country of Kuwait. Across the ocean in the U.S., David Souter became the latest member of the U.S. Supreme Court. Also, the rain in Texas came in the spring of 1990, and the hardest hit areas of the country were Texas and parts of the Southeast. Finally, the 'savings and loan' business hit a brick wall in 1990. It is estimated that the losses will be in the billions of dollars.

On the music scene, Paula Abdul remained on the Top 40 Pop Charts for the year. Michael Bolton won the Best Male Pop Vocal Category at the American Music Awards, and M.C. Hammer sold close to five million copies of his second album, "Please Hammer Don't Hurt 'Em." Finally, Sinéad O'Connor, an Irish singer who shaved her head, won the Best Video of the Year by a Female at the Seventh Annual MTV Video Music Awards.

EUROPEAN ADVENTURES

In June of 1990, five Clinton High School students spent two weeks in Europe with Mrs. Laffey learning about the culture and history of England and France. Stacy Newberry, Brian Greenslate, Shane Stauffer, Telisa Carter, and Clay Stauffer found that an international flight was only the beginning of many new adventures for them. In London they learned to brave the daily rain and enjoy the Hard Rock Cafe, Big Ben, St. Paul's Cathedral, the Tower of London, a performance of RETURN FROM THE FORBIDDEN PLANET in the famous theater district and, of course, the changing of the guard at Buckingham Palace. Other stops in England included Winchester, Salisbury, Windsor Castle, Oxford University, and a day in William Shakespeare's town of Stratford, including a performance of A COMEDY OF ERRORS by the Royal Shakespeare Company. After a visit to the ancient Roman Baths in the city of Bath, the group moved on to a stop at historic Stonehenge.

An overnight crossing of the English Channel brought the group to their first stop in France, the island abbey of Mont-St.-Michel. Then they were off to the city of Tours, with a stop at Chartres.

Visits to some of the grandiose chateaux of the Loire Valley were followed by a stay in Paris, where they saw such famous sights as the Eiffel Tower, the Arc de Triomphe and the Louvre Museum. They also had the opportunity to visit some French students who had spent a month in Clinton two years ago. Excursions to the Palais of Versailles, Reims Cathedral, and the "de Castillane" champagne cellars rounded out the trip.

Look! Somebody shrunk the kids. Eiffel Tower—Paris.

Let's all phone home from London, England.

Mrs. Laffey, why didn't you tell us to bring our swimsuits. Roman Baths—England

Left: Brian Greenslate, Stacy Newberry, Shane Stauffer, Clay Stauffer, and Telisa Carter at St. Paul's Cathedral—London. (England)

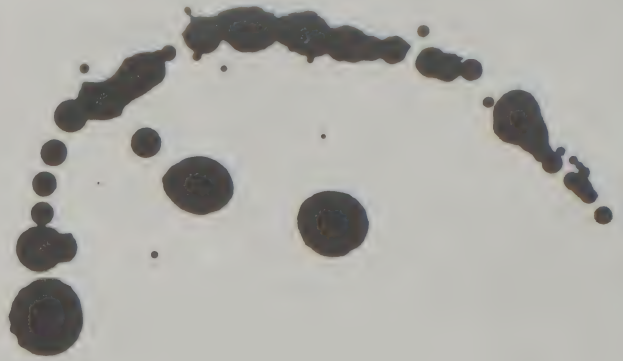

Below: Cheers! Thank God it's time to go home and back to our real beds. De Castellane champagne cellars—Epernay (France)

Bottom: Hey, look Mom, we're at Stonehenge, in England.

SENIORS

SENIORS SALUTE

The class of 1991 shared many laughs and tears over the past four years. Though school spirit was not one of our higher points, the class of '91 still managed to win the Homecoming float contest three out of the four years.

Entering our junior year, our class was saddened by the loss of a dear friend and classmate, Jeff Barry. His memory will live on in our hearts forever.

Despite all of the tears, the class of '91 moved on with preparations for prom. The selling of candy bars was a huge success, and we were able to give the seniors a beautiful prom with the theme, "Stairway to Heaven."

The seniors shared so much these past four years. We've shared the good as well as the bad. This being our last year, we salute and dedicate this section to you... the senior class of 1991.

For some seniors, December 3, the day yearbook pictures were due, came much too quickly. These seniors were just making their appointment for their sittings while others had submitted their photos. The small photos above are the informal photos students had taken in the fall. We have placed them here so that you may see the seniors who are not included in the formal section.

A Tribute to Seniors

From Ross Glenn during a normal Clinton high school day

To Amy and Andi headbanging the night away.

These photos show many different sides to our beloved seniors, from exciting days in P.E. to great friendships that have been formed these past four years. Good luck to the class of '91. Soon pictures like these will just be memories.

Delphine Sartiaux

Delphine Sartiaux, a Rotary Exchange Student, is from La Louviere, Belgium, a town of approximately 10,000 located about an hour's drive from Brussels. She is 18 yrs. old and graduated from high school in 1990. Delphine lived with Doug, Sharon, and Sara Graves the first semester and Pat and Larry Allison the second semester.

Her Belgium family consists of her father, who is a physician; her mother, who helps her father in his practice; and two brothers, ages 15 and 17. She plans to attend college when she returns to Belgium in July. She is interested in becoming a translator and using her English skills. Her parents are also hosting a Foreign Exchange Student from Australia at the same time that Delphine is visiting Clinton.

Delphine says "Peek-a-boo".

Delphine diligently works on the computer.

Delphine likes music, reading, and traveling. She speaks French, Dutch, and English. Her English skills have increased tremendously since she arrived in the United States. She enjoyed participating in track this spring since there were no extra-curricular activities in her high school. She is also in Super Secretaries and the Foreign Language Club. She presently participates in an aerobics class at the YMCA. Many weekends have been spent with other Foreign Exchange Students from Central Illinois at retreats. She went on the Senior Class trip to Houston and the Band Trip to Washington, D. C. This summer she will participate in a Rotary Foreign Exchange Program touring the United States. Delphine says that she would really like to visit California.

Delphine likes American food and movies. She says that the one thing that she will miss most when she returns to Belgium is American pizza. She will also miss our shopping malls and visiting Chicago and the Hard Rock Cafe. The one thing that she misses the most from Belgium is being able to ride mass transportation and the freedom it gives her. In Belgium students have to be 18 before receiving a driver's license; while in the United States she cannot drive and must depend on others for transportation. Delphine says that she has really enjoyed living in the United States and that living here has really given her a different perspective on life. She hopes to see more of the country and to make lasting friendships.

We have loved having Delphine as our 1990-91 foreign exchange student.

Delphine happily works with a fellow student, David Hardwick.

FOOTBALL

The "awesome" freshman squad had a most memorable season. Being the first football team in Clinton Maroon history to go undefeated has left a lot of future goals to be claimed. Coach Urban said the team did a fine job this year with an 8-0 record.

The team kept the spirit rolling with such victories as shutting out Monticello and winning against Olympia in the last game of the season.

The sophomore squad compiled a record of 6-1. Coach Knutson said success was due to quickness and their ability to play as a unit.

The Clinton Maroon Varsity football team had a tough season with 7 of the scheduled teams in the playoffs. Although the Maroons finished 2-7, Coach Ron Goodwin said they played hard all season. Also, he commented on how the seniors showed a tremendous amount of leadership.

The Varsity team celebrates after the win against Sullivan.

HARRIERS HAVE GREAT SEASON

The 1990 Boys Cross Country team finished first in the Okaw Conference with a dual meet record of 7-3. They placed second in Regionals and ninth at Sectionals. It was a season of high hopes of going to state Cross Country Meet, but a disappointing sectional run ended the season. Darrin Cooper was selected as the Most Improved for the team.

The 1990 Girls' Cross Country team had a successful season. For the third year in a row, they fulfilled Coach Clark's wishes of having their own team. Coach Clark cited them as one of the most spirited groups of girls yet. Stephanie Purkes was recognized as Most Improved.

MAROONS TIE FOR FIRST IN OKAW

The 1990-91 Lady Maroons Varsity Volleyball Team finished their first season in the Okaw conference with a school record for wins in a season. The Lady Maroons posted a 23-5 record, tying for conference champions! They also won the Delevan and Rantoul tournaments, as well as reaching the semi-finals of the Clinton Classic. Regionals ended the season with the Lady Maroons losing to Maroa in an exciting three games.

Three-year-starter Martina Underwood again won the award for most attack kills with a school record 220. Martina was also named to the first team all conference and to the News Gazette all area team and to the Pantagraph all area team. Junior Stacy Newberry won the award for most attack assists with 255, setting another school record! Sophomore Melissa Peters won an award for best serving percentage with a school record 96 percent! Sophomore Tracy Roberts won the award for the most blocks with 36 and senior Tara Wright, a two year starter, won the award for best passing percentage! Two year starter Amy Galloway was also named to the second team all conference!

The team will lose three starters in seniors Martina Underwood, Amy Galloway, and Tara Wright.

Martina Underwood shows her stuff!

GOLFERS WIN 20

Away they go!

This year's golfers accomplished many feats. They won twenty matches, beating the old school record of sixteen set in 1989. They also had the second-best team average in the last ten years. They placed fifth at the Prairie Central Invitational at Fairbury, thirteenth at the Sterling Invitational, sixth at the Taylorville Invitational, and fifth at Regionals. This accomplished team was led by captain Brian Reeser a four-time medal winner. Joe Liles was named most valuable golfer with a team low 42.2 stroke average and Ray Stroup was awarded the most improved golfer.

FALL SQUAD PERFORMS

The Fall 1990 "M" Squad started the year off with a bang. They performed at the Kenney Festival, at Homecoming and all the football games and pep rallies. They were very successful at the Apple and Pork Festival, raising $2,300 by selling Caramel apple sundaes. They also held the "Pie in the Eye Contest." Jason Fairfield, Cheri Jent, Max Wollet and Mr. White each "received" a pie.

CHEERLEADERS SHOW SPIRIT

The cheerleaders began their season in April when the squads were chosen. A new idea was initiated this year—a squad for football and a squad for basketball. Quite a few girls took advantage of this new idea. In late June both squads attended summer camp, where they learned new material and competed in the camp championships. In competition the junior varsity placed first, and the varsity placed second. The cheerleaders kicked off their season with the Maroon and Gold game and continued to cheer at all the football games. During Homecoming the cheerleaders participated in many activities. They made signs for the athletes' yards, taught and performed a cheer with the junior high squads, and participated in the parade. They also organized many successful pep assemblies throughout the year.

At the end of the football came the changing of the squads. The junior varsity lost four members and gained one new one while the varsity lost two members. The winter cheerleaders began their season with the first basketball game and continued to cheer at all the boys' games and some of the girls games. The season came to an end quickly as everyone said goodbye to the seniors on senior night. The cheerleaders had a blast at their end-of-the-year party, which involved dancing at Stage II in Peoria, a pizza party, and other fun activities.

Wrestlers Have Another Hot Season

The Clinton Maroon Wrestling team continued to dominate Class A wrestling in 1990-91. They finished their season with a final record of 22-2. After an emotional loss to Mahomet-Seymour in the first dual meet of the year, the Maroons refused to be put down. They bounced back to win the Tremont tournament by an astounding 100 points. Once rolling, the wrestlers started compiling an impressive record which included five complete shutouts and winning the Clinton Holiday Tournament for the second straight year! In winning these achievements, Clinton also entered the all-time state record for most pins in a season and dual meet points. They shattered the pin record by over forty pins! The season came to an end at the sectional meet against Mahomet-Seymour with the Maroons falling short by only three points. Coach Chuck Nagel will lose six varsity wrestlers: Darrin Cooper, Jason High, Cole Baker, Chuck Milton, Don Hammer, and Keith Chapman. He has, however, high expectations for the strong Clinton wrestling program.

This year's Varsity Boys Basketball team finished the season with a four and twenty-one record. This year proved to be a challenge with a new conference and coach. Coach Bergles admits that although their record was not that good, many improvements have been made over the season, and that next year this pattern of improvements should continue. Ben Nichols was awarded most valuable, Joe Liles most improved, Scott Koritz best free-throw percentage, Tad Baird best defensive player, and Kyle Nixon best hustler.

This year's Junior Varsity Boys Basketball team ended the season with a four and sixteen record. Coach Bergles commented that the team improved during the last week as several players made a great contribution during the championship game of Regionals. The Freshman Boys Basketball team finished this year's season with a four and eighteen record. Coach Byrd remarked that the team will get better as they mature and progress through the basketball program.

LADY MAROON BASKETBALL

The girls' season ended for the fifth time in six years in the first round of sectional play. Ranked fourth in the state at one time, the Maroons finished with a record of 25-4, which is a new school record for most wins.

Leading the scoring department was senior Martina Underwood, who averaged 23.8 ppg. She was also named fourth team all-state, and first team all-conference. Despite the lack of height, the Lady Maroons managed well.

Martina Underwood was awarded with best free-throw percentage, best field goal percentage, most steals, most rebounds, co-assist leader, and most career points. Stacy Newberry won most assists, and she was named to the second team all-conference.

By losing Martina Underwood, Lori Gibson, and Wendy Peck, Coach Debbie Kiick realizes she's losing a lot of leadership. Hopefully, the younger girls learned from the seniors and can continue the hard work and discipline.

The Clinton Maroon Girls' Softball team finished the season with a record of twelve wins and six losses. This was the tenth straight year the softball team has posted a winning record. The Maroons captured first place and went undefeated in the Okaw conference. This successful season was topped off by having Martina Underwood, Amy Galloway, Sara Graves, Tari Winchell, Sarah Olson and Wendy Peck named to the All-Conference team.

The Varsity Baseball team finished the season with an 8-20 record and 2-8 in conference play. Joey Liles, the Most Valuable Player, maintained a .470 batting average. Liles was also named for the all-conference team. He was the only returning letterman. Doug Bostwick, with the best ERA, led the team in pitching with five wins. Jesse Husingee had the second best batting average with .352. Jeff Mannix led the team with six home runs.

Clinton boys also advanced to the third game of Regionals, bringing excitement to the team and the Maroons fans.

The 1991 Boy's track team had a successful season, placing 9th in the state as a team with 20 pts. Clinton has never scored that many before, nor has Clinton ever placed that high at the state meet. Clinton's mile relay, Josh Turney, Eric Thayer, Brett Carter, Joe Dougherty, placed third; and Joe Dougherty placed second in the 800m. Sophomore Joe Alexander ran his best race ever and placed an impressive third.

Some highlights were a third place at the Monticello Invite and another at Sectionals and a fourth at the St. Joe Classic out of 32 teams. Clinton's 3200m relay of Brett Carter, Josh Turney, Joe Alexander, and Joe Dougherty broke the school record by nine seconds, finishing in 8:12.

Only two seniors were on the team. Delphine Sartiaux, a foreign exchange student, and Shannon Seal, a Deland-Weldon student, joined forces with the Clinton girls. Most of the girls will be returning; that fact gives Coach Cors a good feeling about the future. Natalie Sams made it to the semi-finals in the 100 high hurdles.

ORGANIZATIONS

YEARBOOK

One of the largest Yearbook classes in a long time signed up to work on the 1991 CLINTONIA. Responsibilities were divided and ad sales began. With a smaller budget than usual, the staff had to make some sacrifices. They designed their own cover but gave up on some of the more expensive aspects of the design. Fall brought the annual Herff-Jones Conference, actually a workshop for yearbook staff members. Thanksgiving brought yearbook sales and a reminder to seniors that pictures were due, and the senior section had to be mailed in January. The first deadline was met with two pages to spare. That was the last deadline that was met on time, however. Procrastination by some who will remain nameless made Mrs. Wunderlich's hair take on shades of gray. A determined group worked to make up for lost time; and as this page went to the printer, the feeling was, "We'll make it, maybe even on time."

BUSY! BUSY

The student council officers, elected last spring, helped to get a head start on the year by organizing many meetings and outings throughout the summer. The elder council members helped with freshman orientation day on August 24th; and soon after, the entire council began their hard work on homecoming activities. Once again, the parade was held at 6:00 p.m. and led to the stadium where a community pep rally was held and the announcing of the king and queen. The traditional dance was held on Saturday, September 15, with a great number of guests attending. With homecoming out of the way, student council members moved on to working on Valentine's Day activities which included the annual Sweetheart Dance, class sweetheart elections, matchmaker, and the selling and delivering of carnations. The members also organized two all-school assemblies: one in which a professional hypnotist put various CHS students to sleep, and a performance by the Millikin Concert band (which also put various students to sleep).

FHA was a small but mighty organization this year. With few members, the hardworking group managed to accomplish much.

The FHA's main project this year was once again the canned food drive. The student body is encouraged by members to bring in canned food to their first hour classes. The total number of cans is tallied by members each day; and at the end of the week, the class with the most cans is treated to breakfast prepared by FHA members. Mr. Zartler's first hour class were the champions "drivers."

The group also sharpened their skills in the kitchen by preparing refreshments for various social/school events.

FFA EARNs GOLD EMBLEM

The Clinton FFA placed fourth in the state in total chapter activities and received a National Gold Emblem award at the national FFA Convention. The chapter also received a National Gold Emblem for Building Our American Communities Gold Emblem after placing third in the state.

The major activities include the chapter banquet, farm animal zoo, Food for America for the third grades, and an orientation to agriculture for the eighth grade. An important addition for the chapter this year is the renting of seventy-seven acres of land for corn and soybean demonstrations.

Members from DeLand-Weldon continued to help the chapter. Chet Walters received the State FFA Degree, and Bill Musick and Ashley Sayers were elected as Section 16 Vice-president and Treasurer.

GUIDES INTERACT

Club Interact, formerly known as the Guide Club, was once again sponsored by Carolyn Glasson. The club consists of students who are willing to help others throughout the school. Officer elections were held early in the year, and seven positions were filled.

The members help new students feel comfortable by showing them around on their first day, visit the nursing home to discuss school activities with the residents, and direct parents to various rooms during parent-teacher conferences.

JONES PRESIDES

The Library Club began the year with an organizational meeting, and officers were elected. Mrs. Field's, along with the club's officers, went on to plan for the year's activities. These included decorating the library for Christmas, planning a pizza party, attending a dinner theatre in the spring, and possibly holding a fundraiser.

The club's main function this year was to read and evaluate new fiction for the library and to teach others to enjoy reading by reading to nursing home residents and various pre-school classes.

VARSITY CLUB SETS GOALS

The Varsity Club began the year with a goal in mind—to become an active organization and make a contribution to C.H.S. With this goal in mind, the club had a successful year beginning with a fundraiser in which members sold Christmas paper and jewelry. After electing officers, the club began working on ideas for incoming members, specifically organizing an induction ceremony for all new members that would occur twice a year.

CAPTAINS KICK OFF WITH RETREAT

The 1990-91 Captains kicked off the year with their annual summer retreat. The coaches of each sport chose one or two individuals to participate in this all conference event. Topics concerning leadership and scholastic problems along with many other topics were discussed at this weekend long retreat. Along with the retreat, this Year's Captains also held monthly meetings that were to include an enjoyable atmosphere rather than the traditional "classroom" type of meetings. They also sponsored a "Harvest Dance" on November 2. Many students attended and enjoyed the music played by disc jockey Jason Karr and other willing students!

QUIZZERS COMPETE

The Junior Varsity Scholastic Bowl team's overall record for 1991 was 10-6. The squad was 4-4 in regular season play. All 16 of the junior varsity games are played against the Okaw League teams.

"This was an enthusiastic, hard-working team with a huge group of talented sophomores," commented JV Coach Becky Adams. "I was particularly pleased to see how they developed a tremendous sense of teamwork over the year."

Most valuable players for the JV squad were sophomores Savilla Joss, the team's high scorer, and Jared Callison, the team's captain and second highest scorer.

Other regular scorers for the team included sophomores Mark Michel, Jonathan Hale, and Brian Cooper, as well as freshman Joe Daniels.

Also playing this year were sophomores Will Daniels, Andrew Goodman, Tracey Kress, Summer Kelley, Tricia Tuggle, and Kim Woollen, and freshmen, Mike Bernard, Jenny Kuntz, and Tasha Walston.

The Varsity Scholastic Bowl team for this year consisted of seniors Erin Kelly, John Hannon, Greg Latham, Ryan Gerald, and Trung-Son Pham, and juniors Jared Anderson, Jason Wrage, and Debbie Willis.

The team was successful against the other eight Okaw Conference schools during Monday night competition except for Sullivan and St. Teresa. During the conference tournament at St. Teresa in February, the team lost to all the other schools except Warrensburg-Latham.

The team was capable of finishing .500 or more for the season but only managed to win 35% of the games played. The leading scorer was Jared Anderson followed by, in order, Ryan Gerald, John Hannon, and team captain Greg Latham.

Senior Vince Joss received a first place in chemistry at the regionals.

Kyle Nixon placed second in chemistry at regionals.

Jared Anderson placed second in Engineering Graphics.

Bobbie Isaac placed third in English at the Regionals.

The Clinton Junior Engineering Technical Society (JETS) team dominated the area with their knowledge as, for the fifth consecutive year, they captured the district title. After this victory, the team proceeded to also take the Regional championship by winning the competition at Eastern Illinois University. This finish allowed the Jets to advance to the State competition, which was held at the U of I. While there, Clinton captured the fourth place title.

The Jets conducts academic tests in the areas of mathematics, chemistry, physics, biology, English, engineering graphics, and computer fundamentals. These written tests generally contain twenty-five to one hundred questions, and the student has only forty minutes to complete the tests. Each student is permitted to take only two of these tests, and team results are based on the overall performance of the group. Richland community college offers a full, one-year scholarship to any first place winner. Along with a team trophy for placing fourth in the state, the members were also given a medallion for their participation and final team finish.

were at the Illini Festival in October.

The Clinton High School Marching Maroons began their year long before the mere thought of returning to school had entered many other students' minds. In early July, newly appointed drum major Andi Boyum attended the week long Smith-Walbridge Drum Major camp located in Syracuse, Indiana. Shortly after her return, she and Mr. Streight began their plans for the busy season. Clinton's own "band camp" began a few days before school started so the marchers could get a head start on their field show. With much hard work and dedication by the members and their leaders, the show was completed and performed at all home football games and two invitational competitions. While participating in the Danville Competitions Marching Festival, the band received first place in the parade competition. With the end of the football season also came the end of the marching band season, and the marchers soon changed their pace towards a more relaxed concert band season.

Mr. Streight conducts "The Star Spangled Banner" at the Homecoming football game.

This season contained much preparation for the many concerts and activities that the band would soon encounter. The first concert was a combined chorus-band Christmas concert and attracted one of the largest audiences ever. Next, the band was kept occupied by performing at numerous sporting events. The pep band had a great number show up to play at each performance, and a large number of Clinton fans enjoyed the band's great sound and new tunes.

Spring came, and the Jazz band competed in several festivals at various universities, and many dedicated players also prepared solos and ensembles for the IHSA solo and ensemble contest. Many awards were won at these concerts. In April the band departed on their long awaited journey to Washington D.C. to march in the nationally known cherry Blossom Festival. Much fun was had by all members as they toured the many monuments, shopped, marched, and photographed.

After returning from Washington, the band members prepared music for their last concert—the Awards night concert. Individual awards were given that night, as well as awards for ensembles and classes.

The Chorus began the year with officer elections, followed by work on upcoming events: a party at the YMCA, a pizza party, attendance at the ISU Choral Festival, a Christmas musical with the Theatre Arts I class for the elementary age children, a joint Christmas concert with the band, and, as usual, participation in the IMEA Solo and Ensemble Contest. With the switching of conferences this year, a new event was added to the Chorus's busy agenda—the Okaw Choral Festival, which ties all Okaw conference schools' choruses together in a concert in which five required selections are jointly learned and sung.

SADD SUPPORTS

The 1990-91 SADD (Students Against Drunk Driving) organization helped to provide students with a positive alternative to drinking and driving by organizing and sponsoring frequent events. The club sold jewelry early in the year to help pay for such events as sponsoring a "spirit week" in which students helped to support troops in Saudi Arabia by dressing in specific "Army" clothing, tying and distributing yellow ribbons to help support the troops, decorating the commons with red, white, and blue streamers during spirit week, and various other supporting activities. The group was a positive influence on students throughout the school year and demonstrated much support to help keep others from drinking and driving.

The Foreign Language Club is open to any student who is enrolled or was previously enrolled in a foreign language class. This year's membership totaled over Thirty students. It was once again sponsored by Spanish/French teacher, Mrs. Laffey. As usual, the club once again dined at Chi-Chi's and Stephanie's to sample "American versions" of Mexican and French food. The club also decorated the "Foreign Language Hallway" for Christmas. A group of students who have completed two years of French started to meet once a month to converse strictly in French. Once again, Clinton High School was turned into a Spanish fiesta the week of May 5th in celebration of "Spanish Independence Day."

ARTISTS CAPTURE AWARDS

The art club was very busy throughout the school year. They supported the school, city, and even the nation by entering various contests and helping with public events. Support pertaining to the school included: creating the backdrops for the thespian's spring show, exhibiting projects in the Fine Arts Festival, and organizing an art exhibit of former CCHS students' current work. Throughout the community, the club painted faces at the CEA carnival, made many posters for various events throughout the community, and made a "Support the Troops" window display for the window above Graves' Stationers. Contests were entered and, in many cases, won. Ronnie Donahue placed first with his "Say No to Drugs" poster for National Awareness. Rachel Lobb topped the list of CHS student award winners by claiming six awards over the past three years. Five of these honors were presented at the 1991 Le Lycee Art Exhibit. Rachel was presented with Purchase Prizes from both Artist's Alley and the John Warner Bank. She was also awarded two Honorable Mentions and a Special Recognition award. Other winners included: Francine Acuna, Savilla Joss, Thai Son Pham, Trung Son Pham, Emily Connors, Wendy Conn, Jason Karr, Aaron Friesland, and James Barry.

In May, senior Honor Studio students participated in the Fine Arts Festival. Many pieces were exhibited, and four purchase prizes were awarded. Christian Barillas received the District 15's choice for his piece entitled "The Square." Tonya Mears's "New York" was chosen by the evening's host, Mrs. Jones, as the Chairman's choice. The John Warner Bank chose a piece drawn by Les Patterson, and Superintendent Gary Archey chose one of Marcy Finch's art works as his first Purchase Prize. The total number of art awards won by Clinton students totaled 26 out of 6 contests.

The Auto Mechanics club was down a few members compared to previous years; however, they still managed to keep occupied by holding many open shops. In December, the club held its yearly Christmas pizza party.

Throughout basketball season, they also worked many concession stands to raise money for their annual scholarship that they offer to eligible auto mechanics students. Unfortunately, no students qualified this year.

Thespians—Front row: Shari Brinkley, Julie Heap, Amber Graves, Mrs. Jones, Lauri Lipke, Andi Boyum, and Stephanie Hagar. Row 2: Josh Morrow, Cary Luttrell, Brian Greenslate, Ryan Gerald, Stefanie Davenport, and Wendy McKinzey.

SIMON SAYS . . .

The Thespians' first project this year was entitled SIMON SAYS. In January, many Thespians attended the annual Illinois High School Theatre Festival, which was held at the University of Illinois. Early in December, several students, along with former student Jeff Griggs, performed a one-act play, LAUNDRY AND BOURBON, that was evaluated and invited to perform at the festival. A new twist was added to the spring show this year. Instead of doing a typical Broadway musical, Mrs. Jones decided to invent a show of Clinton's own. Many talented students joined together to create the show, and to show off their own "talents." To close out the year, the Thespians once again sponsored "Drama and Donuts," which are student-directed, one-act plays.

MALES DOMINATE NHS

National Honor Society's membership was down from last year when eleven seniors graduated and left six seniors-to-be in charge. Sponsors Mrs. Fry and Mrs. Wunderlich, along with the six male members, worked hard at selling the ever famous lollipops. Thankfully teacher's ignored their "NO CANDY" rule long enough to allow students to support NHS to help pay for this year's induction activities. After the induction, members are treated to a meal and the rest of the afternoon free.

Super secretaries is a group of students who are enrolled in Business classes, plan to continue their education in the business field, and like to have fun. The group was sponsored by Mrs. Allison and consisted of approximately twenty female members. The group sponsored many guest business speakers for both members and others who were interested and also a guest speaker on self defense, who was enjoyed by all. Throughout the year the group also enjoyed a weiner roast in the fall, a pizza party, a shopping spree at Christmas time, participating in "Secret Santa's" within the club, and making Valentine's Day cards for the residents of DeWitt County's nursing homes.

Super Secretaries officers—Wendy McKinzey, social chairperson; Wendy Conn, social chairperson; Suzanne Bowling, secretary; Dawn Briggs, president; Kristen Lane, vice president; and Debra Jones, student council representative.

EVENTS

FOREVER

Homecoming 1990 started on a Monday with spirit week. Monday was Beach day, when students showed their spirit by wearing beach clothes. Next came Hippy day, one of the students' favorite days. Then trading their bell bottoms and flowered shirts for straw hats and overalls, the majority of the students participated in Farmer day. The students then surprised the teachers with weird combinations of clothing on Crazy Attire day. Friday came with the traditional Maroon and Gold day. Homecoming would not be complete without the floats and parade. The seniors gathered at the WaterWorks building and put in a lot of time and work; they were proud to win first place in the float contest. The Arnold family supported the juniors by having the float in their garage, while the sophomores worked on their float at the old Dunn building. The freshmen, being the newcomers of the school, worked on their float at the V.F.W.

VICTORY

The 1990 Homecoming football game was one to remember. The Clinton Maroons were victorious over Warrensburg-Latham by the score of 12 to 7. During the game Clinton had 13 first downs and 231 rushing yards. Clinton had 5 passing completions out of 10 for 51 yards. The Maroons had no fumbles but 4 penalties for 30 yards. Clinton player Mike Vandervort scored the first 6 points in the first quarter. During the second quarter Warrensburg—Latham scored 7 points, and Clinton scored none. The third quarter was Clinton's time to gain the lead with Richard Shepherd scoring another 6 points. The fourth quarter ended the game with neither team scoring and Clinton winning.

JUNIOR-SENIOR PROM

After seeing the normal every-day high school on the outside, students got a drastic change when they caught an eyeful of the gym. Two rows of lights led to two staircases. Scott Fort disc-jockeyed the prom with such songs as "Only Time Will Tell," which was also the theme for prom. At 9:00 the 1991 court was introduced as follows: Amy Powless escorted by Kris Karr, Marcy Finch escorted by Dan Andrews, Wendy Peck escorted by Kyle Nixon, Amy Galloway escorted by Don Hammer, and Dawn Briggs escorted by Joe Liles. The 1991 prom king and queen were Dan Andrews and Wendy Peck. After the coronation the king and queen, along with the court, danced to a slow song.

“SIMON SAYS”

Several Thespians and many new recruits joined together to produce a successful fall show entitled “Simon Says.” The show consisted of four one-act scenes of some of Neil Simon’s greatest hits. The “Odd Couple” kicked it off by performing a hilarious version of the card party. Ryan Gerald and newcomer Max Wollet starred as “Oscar” and “Felix” respectively. Other cast members included: Tom Andrews, Marshall Canfield, Josh Morrow, and Jonathan Hale. Soon after, Kristi Helton, Amy Powless, Rebekah Imig, Rachel Taylor, Amy Mathias, Tonya Mears, Jenny Kuntz, Kristen Tilley, Suzanne Bowling reenacted a female version of the same scene. Following intermission the audience was welcomed to the “Plaza Suite” wedding scene by Andi Boyum, Cary Luttrell, Ryan Gerald and Dyan Shepherd. After the visit to New York, Richard Shepherd, Wendy McKinzey, Julie Heap, Jared Callison, and Denise Korneman took the audience on a dream vacation in “California Suite.” Mrs. Jones once again served as director, with former graduate Roger Massey as technical director, Stephanie Hagar as student director, and Jared Anderson as stage manager, along with many other students who helped to make this year’s fall production a hit. FACULTY NOTES

This year the yearbook staff sent out a questionnaire to all the department heads asking specific questions about their departments. Each department head was asked about new teachers in the department, teachers who sponsor or in charge of extra curricular activities, new classes offered, field trips or conferences attended, and the use of computers in the classroom.

MORE FACULTY NOTES

Mr. Coon, head of the Special Services Department, reported that Susan Duling, the new Learning Disabilities teacher, has worked in the district several years before transferring to the high school.

This year there were no new classes offered in this department for the students, but there was a computer training class for the teachers. Many of the teachers took this class to be able to use the computer for word processing, and Mrs. Fields has had training specifically for library use.

The teachers are also active in extra-curricular activities. Mr. Urban was freshman football coach, Mrs. Fields is in charge of Library Club, Mrs. Duling was fall cheer-leading sponsor, Mrs. Glasson has the Club Interact organization, and Mr. Coon was in charge of Snowball.

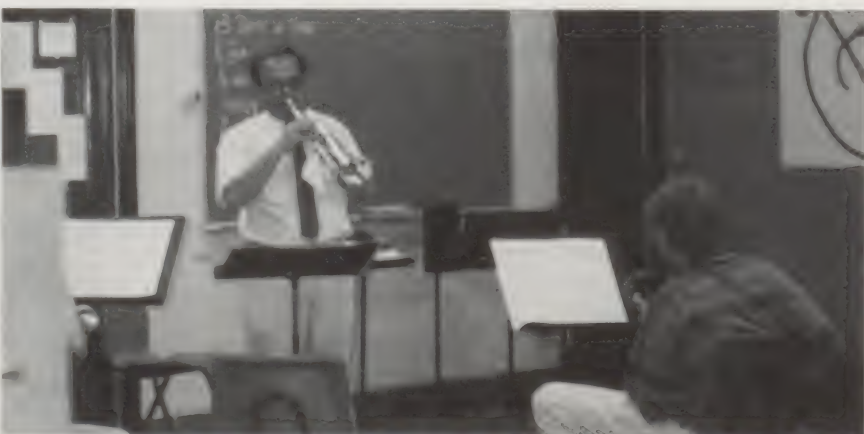

Mr. Adcock, head of the English Department, answered the questionnaire in a different way. The English Department at the high school is fortunate to have Mrs. Carol Davenport working with its members. Mrs. Davenport is the mother of Stefanie, a senior, and Rusty, who graduated two years ago. Before coming to CHS, Mrs. Davenport taught for one semester at LeRoy High School.

Miss Rhodes

Probably the main difference in the English Department this year is the use of computers to write themes and Term papers. Most department members have been trained and find that reading themes is much easier due to the computer.

The staff members sponsoring extracurricular activities are Mrs. Davenport, freshman class sponsor; Mrs. Wunderlich, yearbook and National Honor Society; Mrs. Monts, building publicity; Mr. Kiick, senior class sponsor; and Mr. Adcock still works with the junior bowlers on Saturdays.

Mr. Wylder reported that Desktop Publishing is a new computer class for the Math Department.

Many of the teachers involved with extra curricular activities include: Mr. Cors, girls track coach; Mr. Diener, volleyball coach; and Mr. Wylder, graduation.

Mr. Austin, head of the Physical Education Department, stated that some of the teachers in this department have participated in the computer classes offered to the teachers.

Austin also reported their involvement in extra-curricular activities: Mr. Knutson, assistant football coach; Mr. Nagel, assistant football coach and head wrestling coach; Mr. Austin, softball coach; Mrs. Werts, cheerleading sponsor; and Mr. Clark, cross country and boys track coach.

Mr. Strain reported teachers in the science department use the computers for class preparation and for student use.

Many of the science teaches are involved in outside activities: Mr. White sponsors JETS; Mr. Lehman organizes the senior class trip, and Mr. Strain sponsors the scholastic bowl team.

NOTES:

Mr. Burger, head of the Industrial Tech Department reported that all members of the staff use the computers as part of the training process.

This department also has many teachers in charge of extra curricular activities: Mr. Adams, Auto Mechanics club; Mr. Prather, FFA; Mr. Bernard, CWT Club, and assistant wrestling coach; and Mr. Burger, Golf team.

The teachers take their students on many field trips. The classes go to the Decatur Drafting Firm, Thrall Car, and Caterpillar.

Mrs. Allison is the department head for both the Business and Home Ec. Departments.

In the Business Department each of the teachers has tried to implement computer instruction in every class this year. Last summer all three teachers went to computer classes and workshops. Mrs. Allison also attended the Illinois Business Education Association Conference.

Mrs. Allison is the sponsor of Super Secretaries' Club. Miss Rhodes is actively involved in girls' sports; she is also the assistant volleyball coach and softball coach.

Various field trips to area businesses as State Farm, and the court house were enjoyed by the business students.

Mrs. Arnold is the new teacher in the Home Ec. Department this year. Both Mrs. Arnold and Mrs. Hogan have their students use the computers, and they both have had computer courses. Mrs. Arnold is the Junior class sponsor, and co-sponsors FHA with Mrs Hogan.

This department has been on many field trips: ISU day Care Center, IGA, and Decatur Memorial Hospital.

The head of the Fine Arts Department, Mrs. Jones, reported the art classes this year have been the only classes to use the computers out of this department although Mrs. Jones and Mr. Bryant have both had computer training.

The department attended the Illinois High School Theatre Festival, the IHSA Solo contest, Jazz Festivals and a trip to the Chicago Museum.

There are many activities, public performances, and festivals that this department participated in.

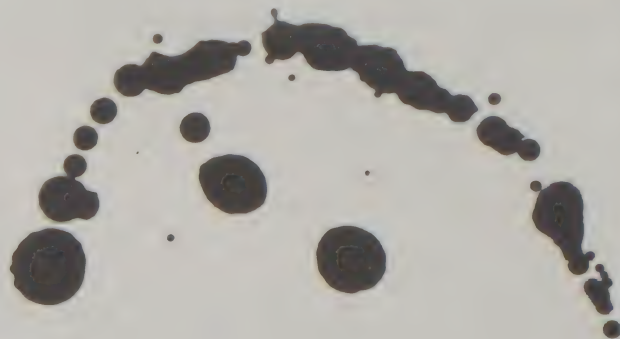

Mr. Bergles is the new teacher in the Social Studies Department with the head being Mr. Trienzenberg. He is also head of the Foreign Language Department.

Several of the teachers in this department are involved with extra curricular activities: Mr. Zartler with SADD; Mrs. Fry, NHS; Mr. Bergles, head varsity basketball coach; Mrs. Laffey, Foreign Language Club; and Mr. Trienzenberg with Freshman Football.
